VALLE DEL SOL GOLF COURSE

OVERVIEW

The Valle del Sol Golf Course is the first and only professional course open to the public in the central valley of Costa Rica. With 6.800 yards and a PAR 72, championship style, it offers ample and waved fairways surrounded by majestic trees and 15 large lakes which attract diversified and lively wild life, where more than 20 different bird species can be observed. Surrounded by tropical and exuberant gardens, the greens represent a perfectly smooth and quick area, built under the specifications given by the United States Golf Association (USGA) and are no doubt, a great challenge for the players. Each hole offers an average of 4 to 5 tees for different levels of the game, which makes the course a great challenge for professionals, without leaving pleasure and friendliness behind for those with less experience.

Certified by the most acknowledged ecological program in the world of Golf, the course counts on a planned paved way system for the adequate circulation of our modern golf carts and an efficient radio and computer controlled sprinkler system, which allows our Bermuda style grass to always keep in the best conditions.

RESERVA CONCHAL GOLF COURSE

(Formerly know as the Garra de Leon)

The Robert Trent Jones II-designed Reserva Conchal Golf Course serves as a magnificent centerpiece tone of the most luxurious resort in Central America-- the Melia Playa Conchal All Suite Beach & Golf Resort. Jones fulfilled his goal of creating another masterpiece, one that blends harmoniously into the natural Costa Rica countryside. The course can be challenging enough from the back tees (7,080 yards) to host a professional event, but one that the resort guests will enjoy from the other three or four sets of tees, ranging from 5,446 to 6,624 yards. With panoramic views of the Blue Pacific from many of the holes, the course meanders through rolling hills with sun-drenched fairways bordered by native forests--you might even see howler monkeys. In addition, there are enough lakes and ravines to put a premium on accurate approach shots to large Bermuda greens manicured just like those at country clubs in the USA.
